

WELL KNOWN DEALER DIES.

William F. Sudds, a well known dealer and music teacher, died recently at his home in Gouverneur, N. Y. Mr. Sudds, who had reached the age of seventy-seven, was a composer of note. Upwards of two hundred vocal and instrumental pieces are to his credit. He was born in England but served as a musician in the Union Army during the Civil War.